

Phoenix Tuba Christmas 2015

Attention all tuba, euphonium, baritone, Sousaphone, helicon, serpent, ophicleide, and other low brass musicians! Tuba Christmas returns again to Phoenix this year, and you're invited to participate!

When: Saturday, December 19, 2015

Registration starts at 10 am

Rehearsal 11:00 - 1:00

Performance 3:30 - 4:30

Where:

Rehearsal is at Gilbert High School, 1101 East Elliot Rd., Gilbert, AZ

Performance is on the stage at Tempe Marketplace (2000 E. Rio Salado Parkway, Tempe, AZ 85281: SW corner 101 & 202)

What to Bring:

$10 Registration Fee (cash or check only)

$20 if you need music (the same music is used each year)

A CHAIR and a STAND (chair is for the performance only)

...and don't forget your instrument!!!

Other Details:

- Tuba Christmas hats, scarves, CDs, and other goodies are available in limited quantities - bring extra cash to purchase items.
- We have an event page on Facebook! Search "Tuba Christmas 2015 - Phoenix, AZ" or go to <https://www.facebook.com/events/395365713996217/> Sign up and tell your friends!
- Pre-print your registration form: <http://www.tubachristmas.com/reg.php>
- Each year, we give away a prize for the best-decorated instrument, so add some holiday color to your horn!
- Dr. Deanna Swoboda, professor of Tuba at ASU, will be our principle guest conductor again this year!
- We play on the outdoor stage in the very center of Tempe Marketplace, near Dave & Buster's, San Filipe's, and California Pizza Kitchen. Plan to dress for the weather! Unless there is serious rain the event will go on as scheduled.

Other Questions? Contact coordinator Dave Ihlenfeld at dave@lizanddave.com.