

Bio Amy Brown Treasurer DV Band Booster

I am Amy Brown, the mother of a senior drummer and an incoming freshman trombone player. I have had a great time as the treasurer this past year. I love spreadsheets, math, balancing checkbooks, and the smile on peoples' faces when I give them a reimbursement check. The only part that's not so fun is asking people for money. I'm also a speech therapist, math tutor, substitute teacher, and director of children's ministry at my church.
